2:07 - 2:20 pm Program Updates

Working on finalizing a marketing strategy. This is required under statute. The outreach group is adding a number event throughout Colorado. The Department of Treasury held a rules hearing on July 20th for the secure savings rules. After receiving comments the group should be able to finalize the rules in August. The pilot program is almost full. They are keeping a couple of slots still open for some future outreach in minority communities. In September Hunter and other Secure Savings partners will be presenting at a retirement symposium in New Mexico. Secure Savings needs data acquisition from the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment. This data is businesses and contact info so the businesses can make sure everyone is able to comply with the new program.

2:07 - 3:14 pm Marketing & Branding: Overview & Board Q&A

Courtney Eccles from Vestwell presented the marketing and branding overview. The Board gave feedback on the marketing, website, colors, accessible language and the use of resources. The Pilot launch was discussed and questions and comments were answered.
